9 Art Events in New York This Week: Purvis Young, Alice Neel, Ricardo Brey, and More

POSTED 02/25/19 10:47 AM

Opening: Christina Forrer at Luhring Augustine

Los Angeles-based artist Christina Forrer makes large, colorful figurative tapestries featuring bodies undergoing various activities. Her subjects have ranged from playful children jumping rope to monsters preparing to eat women. Graphically bold and dense with narrative, Forrer's tapestries recall the histories of pop and folk art. Her new show—her first since being added to the roster of Luhring Augustine—will include new tapestries and works on paper.

Luhring Augustine, 531 West 24th Street, 6–8 p.m.

Christina Forrer, Baby, 2019, cotton and ink.
