Luhring Augustine is pleased to present exhibitions of new paintings and sculptures by Christopher Wool in our Chelsea and Bushwick galleries.

Wool was born in 1955 and lives in New York City and Marfa, Texas. Recent exhibitions include his 2013-2014 retrospective at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York which traveled to the Art Institute of Chicago. In 2012 Wool completed his first public commission, a series of stained-glass windows for an eleventh-century church priory in the city of La Charité-sur-Loire, France. Also currently on public view is Wool's untitled sculpture from 2013 near Buckingham Fountain in Grant Park in the City of Chicago.
